the history...

A shaded, flower-strewn, forty acre tract of land devoted to the enlightenment of man is Centenary College. It has, since its beginning, achieved a long and worthy history of service to education.

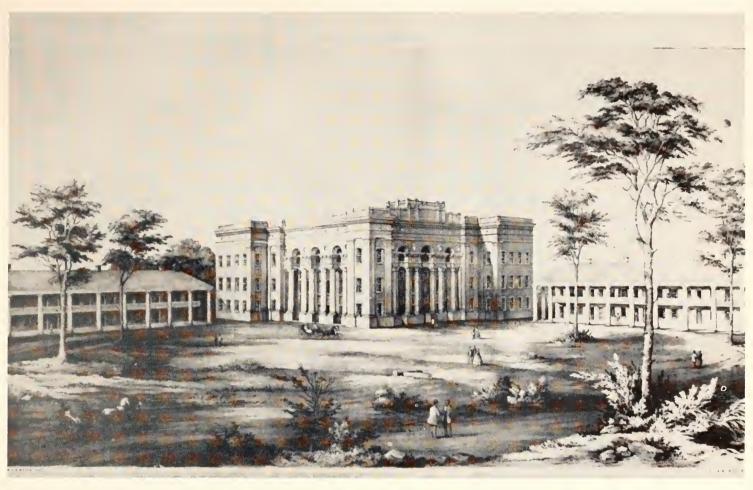

The College of Louisiana, Centenary's first component and the oldest college in Louisiana, was founded by the state in 1825 at Jackson. This school existed until 1845. In 1839, the Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Church founded a college called Centenary in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of Methodism. The site of Centenary was Clinton, Mississippi. Its trustees, seeking a better location, soon purchased the College of Louisiana and the two were merged at Jackson in 1845.

Although a cultural center for nearly a century, Jackson was still a village, in 1900, by-passed by railroads and lacking other advantages which changing conditions demanded in a college site. Early in the new century, Centenary was invited to move to Shreveport. J. B. Atkins and associates offered forty acres for the campus and the citizens of Shreveport gave a substantial sum for buildings and equipment. In 1908, fifty years ago this year, Centenary College of Louisiana opened its first session in its new location. Since that time it has grown in endowment, facilities and enrollment. Today it stands as a symbol of the struggles which men will undergo for the enlightenment of mankind.

On this, its fiftieth anniversary, Centenary College might best be described by the following words written by a Centenary graduate of 1951, Paris Leary:

School of arts and school of science, School of God the living Truth; Home of learning, place of trial, We who honor you in youth Shall in age the more revere you For the vision here displayed, Alma Mater, Centenary. The vision shall not fade!

For the joys and for the laughter, And for every challenge dared; For the tears and disappointments, And for greater victories shared; For the life we have together, For the best of old and new, Alma Mater, Centenary, We give our thanks to you. Centenary College of Louisiana in its original site in Jackson, Louisiana, just before the great move to Shreveport in 1908.

The Caddo Parish Courthouse in Shreveport, Louisiana, as seen by the first Centenary students in 1908 after the college was moved to its present site.

shreveport celebration

To celebrate the accomplishments of the past 50 years, Centenary and the City of Shreve-port co-operated in preparing a full week of activities. Throughout the seven days, students and visitors viewed the combined Armed Forces Space-Age Exhibit in the Hanyes Memorial Gymnasium, and such highlights as the Shreveport Chamber of Commerce presentation of a sundial containing a time capsule which is to be opened in 2008 A.D. Freshman Day was held during this week and all Freshmen co-operated by wearing costumes which they thought would be worn by the well-dressed college student of 2008. The week's activities were culminated by a dance held in the Moore Memorial Student Center at which time Miss Mary Tom Wilkinson was crowned as Queen of the 50 Years in Shreve-port Celebration.

Company 0-6, Pershing Rifles, began the year by initiating twelve men in order to continue the outstanding record of the previous year, when the local unit was named Best Company of the Best Regiment among twelve regiments and one hundred fifty companies throughout the nation. Ramona Nail was elected Honorary Captain to succeed Martha Turner, who was named National Honorary Sponsor.

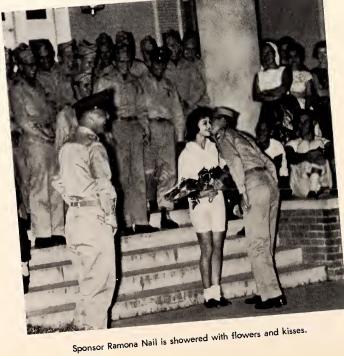

Captain James Durham led the company in the Tyler Rose Festival, the Louisiana State Fair Parade, Natchitoches Christmas Festival, parades of the Krewes of Adonis and Venus during Mardi Gras, Sixth Regimental Drill Meet in Mobile, Bienville Parish Festival at Arcadia, Holidy in Dixie, and the Fiesta de las Flores in San Antonio. Invitations to participate in drill meets in Ohio and Illinois were refused due to the crowded schedule.

Company 0-6 continued to be known as one of the outstanding drill units in the United States.

This is the first year for Centenary to have a Pep Squad. It was organized on October 14, 1958, by Mrs. R. M. Nichols, its sponsor, and Miss Mary Frances Estes, and is composed of fifty girls. They have been very active this year, having attended all the home games in a body and two of the out-of-town games, Louisiana Tech and Northwestern.

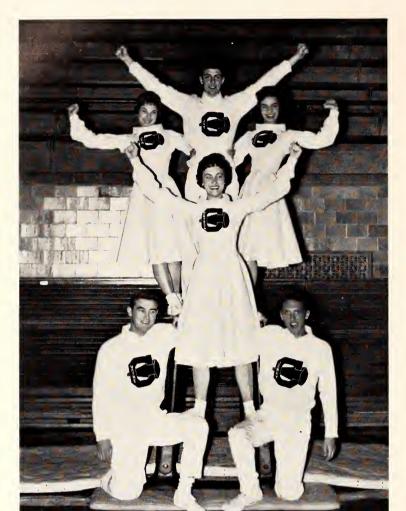

The Organization has membership limited to Freshman girls this year, but will increase its ranks to include upperclassmen as it grows older. Mrs. Nichols, Student Activities Counselor, has been very active in promoting this fine organization in every way possible to make it into something Centenary and the Centenary Gents can be proud of for years to come.

CHARLES WILDER, President.

The Student Senate is composed of officers elected by the entire student body, the elected presidents of each class, an Interfraternity Representative, a Panhellenic Representative, and a Boy and Girl Independent Representative. The Senate is responsible for student activities, such as conducting elections, handling freshman activities, including an annual "Howdy Dance."

This year the Student Senate sponsored a "Student Fair" to help in Centenary's extension program. The fair was held on campus and had such attractions as booths and a dance.

The "Fifty-Years-in-Shreveport" celebration was also conducted by the Student Senate. A Queen and her court were selected and presented at a special dance. The "Gentlemen's Holiday" celebration and dance were also sponsored by the Senate.

Student enthusiasm and participation in student activities is promoted by the Senate. It is an effective, integral part of our campus.

The Maroon Jackets have served as Centenary's official hostesses for twenty-seven years and are made of girls who are dedicated to Centenary and are outstanding in scholarship, leadership and character. A lovely tradition on the college campus, these girls represent Centenary at all college functions. For membership this organization requires a 2.0 average and two semesters of residence at Centenary previous to the semester in which new members are chosen.

Dr. W. W. Pate, Faculty Adviser, Francis Kelker, Chief Justice.

Centenary's Honor Court is a board of five members and two alternates who hold office from the time of their elecction to the date of their graduation, unless elected to a Student Senate office. Members of the Honor Court are nominated by the students; the field is narrowed down by the faculty, and the final selection is made by the retiring court.

The function of the Honor Court is to try persons accused of violating the honor code. All trials are held in secret and no person is convicted unless proven guilty by unquestionable evidence.

Robin Hubert, Wayne Adams, and "Rosemary."

"Visit" is an original television play by Gore Vidal. It is the most successful comedy the playhouse has produced in many years. Wayne Adams, as a visitor from outer space, lands in the 20th Century instead of the 19th, and disappointed not to find a Civil War, attempts to start one for his amusement. Robin Hubert plays the starry-eyed Earth girl.

Tommy and Winnie dance to "I'll Share It All With You."

annie get your gun

The splendor of the Golden West coupled with the lilting music of Irving Berlin burst forth on the stage of the Marjorie Lyons Playhouse for a four-week run. A well balanced cast of amateurs and professionals made it the most enjoyable production of its kind the Ark-La-Tex has seen since last year's record-breaking run of "The King and I." Music by Eddie Kozak and choreography by Mara put the finishing touches on for a thoroughly enjoyable production. Producer and Managing Director was our versatile Joseph B. Gifford. Scenic designs were done by Vlada Dimac of the Drama Department.

Frank Butler sings "1'm a Bad, Bad Man" and the girls become even more eager for his attentions.

Annie's learning the hard way that "You Can't Get a Man with a Gun."

Annie tells Sitting Bull how she got "Lost in His Arms."

"Doin' What Comes Natchurly" brought many a laugh from the responsive audiences.

THE CAST INCLUDED:

"Cyrano de Bergerac" was first produced in December, 1897, but our brilliant cast proved to enchanted audiences that it has lost none of its traditional charm and romanticism when it was revived for a two-week run at the Marjorie Lyons Playhouse. Rostand wrote "not of an age, but for all time" making this classic equally enjoyable today as it was in yesteryear.

The feminine beauty of satins, velvets, laces, and hair with curls to cascade down the necks of the lovely ladies were portrayed by Centenary students Robin Hubert, Mignon Eubanks, Gail Stimpert, Beverly Bedsole, Paula Martin, Martha Simmons, and speech professor Miss Ruth Alexander. The "fairest of them all," Roxanne, was portrayed by Miss Ramona Nail, Miss Centenary of 1959.

the striking words and moods of the famous "fencing sonnet" of Cyrano.

Alan Hart, as Cyrano, thrilled the imaginations of everyone within the sound of his voice. Many a tear was wiped unashamedly from the eyes of theatregoers stirred by his electric performance.

The splendor of the 16th Century lived again in the dress of the courtly gentlemen in the play. Equally authentic were the costumes of the flower peddlers, cutpurses, and common soldiers.

Other Centenary students in the play, besides those already mentioned, were Sammy Kilman, Jim Daigle, Tommy Hickcox, Dave White, John O. Williams, David Calhoun, Charles Morton, Beverly Paul, Keith Simmons, Harry Rawls, and Bob Sorenson.

A two week closed rush period was held in October and forty men went through rush, of whom thirty-two pledged.

The Kappa Alpha House was packed with people for one of their rush parties. Everybody had a grand time!

Even the faculty members enjoy rush. David Forte, Tutti Cage, Mary Cat McCain, and Charles Clifford are seen talking with Dr. Lee Morgan of the English department at the Kappa Alpha rush party.

The dancing was wild and the band was great at one of the Sig rush parties held at their house.

The girls enjoy men's rush almost as much as the men do. There are frequent "bull sessions" at the rush parties as well as dancing and other entertainment.

Twenty-five of the men who went through rush are shown at "The Embers" for the Sig banquet. "Who needs to study anyway?

What's so funny, girls?

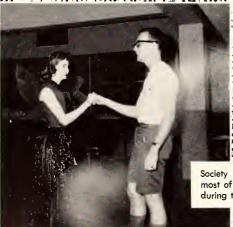

Looks like you've been spreading some Christmas

"Eek!! A MOUSE!!"

Society Note: Miss Hughes wore most of a hula skirt which diminshed during the evening.

Mr. A. J. Hodges gets a great kick out of the choir kids who visit with him during too.

"Just because I don't have on a grass skirt doesn't mean I can't hula."

Well, if it isn't Huck Finn and Becky!

"Do you, rieic., ake +L"
your lawfully wedde пате?"

"Dear Santa . . . Thanks for bringing just what I ordered!"

ooks like a wild party!

"One at a time, girls" or "Repent, ye sinners, the kingdom is a hand."

"Hey, everybody, look at me."

Sure you won't join us?'

Didn't you get mixed up with Cheesy, Joe?

What time does the next show start, girls?

Centenary's First Lady chats with students.

Taking up mountain climbing for a hobby now?

A dignified Senior poses!
